

JESSICA VERMA PHOTOGRAPHY

the business and fun of photography

So many photographers starting their own businesses find that they have the creativity and skill to be great photographers, but have trouble when it comes to the business side of things. Not knowing how to market yourself, being disorganized, unnecessary spending, and other common problems can lead to even the most enthusiastic photographers getting burnt out or going out of business. I can help you make photography fun again!

Real, useful ideas

No matter what market you cater to, what you charge, what stage of your business you are in, or where you want it to go, there are simple, effective techniques to create a highly profitable, sustainable and efficient business that not only brings you money, but actual joy and satisfaction! Running your own photography business can be one of the best jobs in the world, and one of the most stressful - I want to help you make it the former!

My full-day workshops are small (less than 10 people!) and extremely personalized. I will help you with your specific problems, and offer ideas and solutions catered to your business. Please call or email if you are interested in signing up or if you have any questions!

The next workshop will be at the end of October, and has a special one-time low price of only $99!
Space is extremely limited, so please call or email now to reserve your spot!
